(on 77-84 in blank)

The Osborn family were probably from New Jersey at the close of the Revolutionary war and Pioneers in settling of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Iowa is where Great-grandfather, Uncles Stephen and Robert are buried, at Center Point, in Linn County. Samuel Osborn was buried someplace in Ill. in 1851 - having died from a hurt received. The morning they left father's place starting back to Linn Co., Iowa, in trying to catch one of his horses kits broken.

"Pioneer's Records" were not written. So far as I remember their history is only as handed down through memory.

I was seven years old when I last saw John Osborn. In 1867 I talked with Robert Osborn his son, but nothing was written down. He was at French Bar - a placer camp in Montana.

This as memory serves me now.
